

Moses Kotane Institute

INNOVATION. THE FUTURE

Impact Assessment Study

Moses Kotane Institute (MKI) is an entity of the KwaZulu-Natal Department Economic Development, Tourism and Environmental Affairs (EDTEA) and is focussed on education and skills development in science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM) disciplines. It implements its mandate through funding student/learner bursaries and skills development projects.

The MKI seeks to appoint a service provider or consortium of service providers to conduct an independent impact assessment study and to document the history of MKI since inception. The main objectives of the study is to document the impact of its various interventions since inception, lessons that can be learnt and the history of MKI that can be embedded in its institutional memory.
